Spanning 9,326 sq. ft., the Bayview Village location will serve as a new destination for culinary discovery, featuring the selection of specialty departments it is known and loved for, including restaurant-quality meals, produce, meats, seafood, bakery, deli & cheese, floral, and gifting.

“At Bayview Village, we are continually enhancing the customer experience by introducing exceptional brands and sought-after concepts that further enrich our centre’s unique retail offering,” says Carrie DeVries, Senior Vice President, Leasing- Retail Experience at QuadReal Property Group. “We are thrilled to welcome McEwan Fine Foods and introduce our community to one of Canada’s most celebrated culinary brands, renowned for its exceptional gourmet grocery offerings and memorable culinary creations.”

“Opening at Bayview Village represents an exciting opportunity to connect with a community that values quality, craftsmanship and exceptional experiences,” says Mark McEwan, President and CEO, The McEwan Group. “Whether customers are stopping in for everyday essentials, a chef-prepared meal or ingredients for a special occasion, we look forward to becoming a trusted destination for gourmet food and bringing the McEwan experience to even more Toronto shoppers.”

The addition of McEwan Fine Foods to Bayview Village is the latest in a series of exciting announcements from the shopping centre this year. Also joining the centre’s evolving retail mix is renowned Canadian outdoor lifestyle brand Tilley and multi-brand menswear concept Hank, which are both slated to open this summer. The new stores coincide with the completion of Bayview Village’s major interior renovation project, which will conclude later this year.
